

CHURCHES COUNCIL ON JUSTICE & CORRECTIONS QUÉBEC REGION

The mission of the Churches Council on Justice & Corrections is to promote a preventative and restorative justice, rooted in the Gospel, by reaching out to legislators, offenders, victims, the community and society as a whole, by carrying out research and by offering support to groups and individuals in their question for growth.

Every year, the Churches Council on Justice & Corrections takes a leadership role in organizing activities during Restorative Justice Week, generally held in the third week of November. Please join us by participating in this year's activities.

Here are but a few of the activities being planned:

Sunday November 16th

- Opening celebration of Restorative Justice Week

Location: Saint Joseph's Oratory

After 12:30 Mass, there will be a panel discussion with various representatives of the growing network of churches, organizations and individuals working for a justice that is both restorative and transformative. The topic will be "Restorative Justice: A Risk Worth Taking". A light brunch will be included. Tickets: 5$ each.

Friday November 21st

- Closing ceremony for Restorative Justice Week

Location: 2715, Côte-Sainte-Catherine Road, Montreal

5:00 p.m. : Welcome

5:30 p.m. : Dinner

7:00 p.m. : Prayer and workshops on the topic of "Encounter"

The evening is free of charge. Translation into English will be available

Restorative Justice Week is a time for friendship and sharing. We need your support, your voice and your contribution to be able to carry out our mission of promoting greater dialogue around Restorative Justice in the context of crime.

You can confirm your participation at any one or at several of our activities by e-mail at cejcq-provincial@sympatico.ca or by phoning Cindy Ayala at 514-608-5075
