

‘Operation Andrew’ Week currently underway

Do you know why your pastor probably spoke about his life as a priest during the Sunday homily Nov. 16? It’s all part of a weeklong vocations initiative, called Operation Andrew.

The initiative encourages pastors to speak about their vocations and to help single men learn more about the diocesan priesthood. Priests are encouraged to invite men to explore this vocation at a daylong session. The week concludes with a meeting at St. Veronica Parish Nov. 22 for priests and the men they have invited to come and see.

Operation Andrew is inspired by the story in the Gospel of John in which Andrew leads Peter to Jesus.
